

Elvis croons, "I'll be home for Christmas at The Norton Shows!" while Santa chuckles, "Ho-Ho! My sleigh looks different! Where's Rudolph? I'm getting a nosebleed!" Elvis breaks into a mournful, "It'll be a blue, blue Christmas without you."

Elvis and Santa are looking forward to seeing all of you at The Norton Shows, November 13, 14 and 15, as well as Tom, Linda and Nikke and their friendly staff. The welcome mat is out and ready for you. Elvis and Santa invite you to join them in our national welcoming promotion. Aerial Photographing Company (hopefully, if weather conditions permit) will position a blimp, loaded with cameras, in the afternoon around 4:00 pm to 5:00 pm, overhead the Gatlinburg Convention Center and Redlight 8 on the Parkway, looking toward Mt. Le Conte, in order to photograph all market participants. We'll join Elvis and Santa, who will be on the center roof or hanging out of penthouse windows, by emptying the convention center, for about ten or fifteen minutes, looking up, smiling and waving "Happy Holidays". The cameras will zoom in for close-ups while we are outside as well as all day Saturday inside the Gatlinburg Convention Center. We'll make mountain memories and you can download photos from our website, www.nortonshows.com, as treasured souvenirs of the occasion. And, we promise, we'll make this photography session snappy, as we all want to return to The Norton Shows and conduct more shopping and buying for the Christmas season. Shows held at the Gatlinburg Convention Center, 234 Historic Nature Trail Road, Gatlinburg, Tennessee 37738.

See You in Gatlinburg!

Living Gold Company, Booth 613, is a well established manufacturer since 1991. Situated in downtown Los Angeles, California, we are making brand name products of "Living Gold" and "Birth Color Rose". Every year, we transform thousands of flowers, leaves and other real things into tokens of precious metals such as 24K gold and platinum. The uniqueness of such work is to ensure virtually everything lasts forever as a keepsake. Each piece is one-of-a-kind, and it takes up to 60 steps for a piece to be completed. They are indeed ideal gifts that warrant unique gifts on any occasion.

Storeowners and Buyers, You may wonder why we are including MAC, Rejuvenation Station, The Brezeleane Clinic, etc. in the Norton Shows. Our purpose is to provide a market locale and surroundings, presenting a total package, which will be comfortable, relaxing, healing, serviceable and offer a sustainable environment, with which women and men can easily identify and enjoy an oasis of rest, perhaps, a spa experience. A huge amount of monies is currently being spent/allocated in the beauty salon/spa environment. Let's take advantage of this movement. We all can participate in this pleasant phenomena. Women and men like to be pampered and should be, while taking a break and regrouping in an effort to relieve stress, allowing them to become re-energized. We want nail technicians, hairstylists, pedicurists, estheticians, massage therapists and cosmetologists to participate in The Norton Shows as exhibitors promoting their services at a promotional price while allowing storeowners and buyers to partake and familiarize themselves with their services. We want salon product suppliers to also participate on a wholesale basis as exhibitors. A great opportunity exists for gift shops and boutiques to add salon and spa products to their inventory. We hope to enlarge, adding products while allowing you to take a break, get a foot massage, enjoy the fragrance and the healing properties of aromatic oils while relieving tension. We hope you enjoy.

Should you want to contact Matt Cordell, Elvis Tribute Artist, and Santa Fortney for future performances, we offer the following info: Elvis, Smith Theater, and Santa, santavols@yahoo.com.
